

ALSA SOUTHWESTERN REGIONAL 2010 CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

October 1-3, 2010 --- Santa Rosa, California

Co-Superintendents: Erwin Ditsler & Tom Hansen

The Southwestern Regional 2010 Championship show is being held in conjunction with the annual Harvest Fair Show, in Santa Rosa, CA. This is a 3 day show, with the Halter classes on Friday. Youth Judging, Showmanship, Public Relations & Obstacle classes will be held on Saturday. The Pack classes will be held on Sunday.

These classes will include all three Youth Divisions Plus a Youth Alpaca class. Adult Performance classes will include Novice, Advanced and Master, as well as Advanced Alpaca. Special Need and Driving Classes will also be available. This is a level-3 show, and the Halter classes will include Suri, Light Wool, Medium Wool and Heavy Wool for both Female and Male Llamas. There will be three, Non-Breeder classes plus Produce of Dam and Get of Sire classes.

The Judge will be Gayle Woodsum, from Wyoming. The secondary Performance Judge will be Kim Yates, from California.

The ALSA Regional Class List, detailed Show Information and Entry Forms are available on the ALSA website. Select "REGIONAL SHOWS", then select the "SOUTHWESTERN REGION" from the chart.

Need to qualify for a trip to Grand Nationals. Or just to have fun and try for a championship within your Southwestern Region, this is the show for you.

First thru Sixth places, will qualify for the Grand National Show being held in Lincoln, Nebraska being held on October 29th – 31st, 2010. Top-5 in Halter and Performance Divisions will receive Special Top-5 Ribbons. The amount of Premiums to be paid this year has yet to be determined by the ALSA BOD.

Mark your Calendar. Entry deadline is September 20th. Class Sponsorships are available. See the Show Information package on the ALSA website for further information.